1 THE HONORABLE JAMES L. ROBART 2 3 4 5 6 7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON 8 AT SEATTLE 9 10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, No. 2:12-cv-01282-JLR 11 Plaintiff. 12 UNITED STATES' RESPONSE IN SUPPORT OF TERMINATION OF THE CONSENT 13 v. DECREE AND DISMISSAL WITH CITY OF SEATTLE, PREJUDICE 14 Defendant. 15 16 17 The City of Seattle has moved for full termination of the parties' Consent Decree in this 18 case. Dkt. 831. The Court entered the Consent Decree in 2012 to address the Department of Justice 19 20 (DOJ)'s findings that the Seattle Police Department (SPD) had engaged in a pattern or practice of 21 conduct that violated the Constitution and federal law. To address DOJ's findings, the parties 22 negotiated a Consent Decree, which set forth six areas for reform: (1) Use of Force; (2) Crisis 23 Intervention; (3) Stops and Detentions; (4) Bias-Free Policing; (5) Supervision; and (6) the Office 24 of Professional Accountability (now renamed the Office of Police Accountability). Dkt. 3-1 ¶¶

69-168. In each area, SPD was required to make changes to its policies and take steps to ensure that those changes were carried out in practice.

UNITED STATES' RESPONSE TO MOTION TO TERMINATE Case No. 2:12-cv-01282-JLR - 1

1	Based on the City's sustained compliance with the Decree, in September 2023, this Court
2	terminated most of its requirements. Dkt. 769 at 2-3. However, the Court required the City and
3	SPD to complete additional work to address the use of force in crowd management settings;
4
5	accountability; and impartial policing. "After these tasks are complete," the Court stated, "the City
6	(either on its own or jointly with the United States) may move for an order terminating the Consent
7	Decree and dismissing this case." Dkt. 769 at 6.
8	The United States agrees that the City and SPD have completed the tasks set forth in the
9	2023 Order. Accordingly, the Court should terminate the Consent Decree and dismiss this case
10
11	with prejudice. The United States has confidence that the City and SPD are prepared to meet future
12	challenges and provide effective and constitutional policing to the people of Seattle.
13
14	DATED on July 22, 2025.
